Hi [redacted], I understand that although he originally suggested the issue discussed below was an IOB violation, [redacted] has now deferred to NSLB on the matter (and you are the lucky atty assigned to it). I sent the below e-mail to [redacted] to relay the [redacted] CDC's position on the matter and to request further information [redacted]

[redacted] Thanks for forwarding all the information. It is my opinion that this should definitely be reported as a potential IOB. By having it so reported, NSLB can then do the appropriate analysis to determine if it was a violation. I believe your initial assessment was absolutely correct. Thanks.
