22 I, DENNIS C. BLAIR, do hereby state and declare as follows:

23 1. I am the Director of National Intelligence (DNI) of the United States. I have held 24 this position since January 29, 2009. In 2002, I retired as an Admiral from the United States
 25 Navy after a 34-year career, which included service as Commander in Chief, U.S. Pacific
 26 Command. During my Navy career, I also served as Director of the Joint Staff and as Associate 27

1 Director of Central Intelligence for Military Support, as well as in policy positions on the 2 National Security Council staff. From 2003 to 2006, I was President and CEO of the Institute for 3 Defense Analyses, an organization that analyzes and makes recommendations on national 4 security policy matters. The statements made herein are based on my personal knowledge, as 5 well as on information provided to me in my official capacity as DNI, and on my personal 6 evaluation of that information.

7 2. The position of Director of National Intelligence was created by Congress in the 8 Intelligence Reform and Terrorism Prevention Act of 2004, Pub. L. No. 108-458, §§ 1011(a) and 9 1097, 118 Stat. 3638, 3643-63, 3698-99 (2004) (amending sections 102 through 104 of Title I of 10 the National Security Act of 1947). Subject to the authority, direction, and control of the 11 President, the DNI serves as the head of the U.S. Intelligence Community^{1/} and as the principal 12 advisor to the President, the National Security Council, and the Homeland Security Council, for 13 intelligence matters related to national security. See 50 U.S.C. § 403(b)(1), (2). The 14 responsibilities and authorities of the DNI are set forth in the National Security Act, as amended.
15 See 50 U.S.C. § 403-1. These responsibilities include that “[t]he Director of National 16 Intelligence shall protect intelligence sources and methods from unauthorized disclosure.” 50 17 U.S.C. § 403-1(i)(1). By virtue of my position as the DNI, and unless otherwise directed by the 18 President, I have access to all intelligence related to the national security that is collected by any 19 department, agency, or other entity of the United States. Pursuant to Executive Order No.
20 12958, 3 C.F.R. § 333 (1995), as amended by Executive Order 13292 (March 25, 2003), 21 reprinted as amended in 50 U.S.C.A. § 435 (Supp. 2004), the President has authorized me to 22 exercise original TOP SECRET classification authority.

23 3. The purpose of this declaration is to address further, and in unclassified terms, an 24 inaccuracy contained in a prior submission by the Government. The Government first advised

27 ¹ The “United States Intelligence Community” includes the offices, agencies, and 28 components set forth at 50 U.S.C. § 401a(4).

1 the Court of this issue in February 2009 in a public report and declarations setting forth the 2 results of a "declassification review" of the information over which privilege has been asserted
3 in this case. Details concerning the matter remain classified and cannot be set forth on the public
4 record. In February 2009, the Government submitted classified declarations that addressed this 5 issue, along with the overall results of the declassification review.

6 4. I have reviewed the public and In Camera, Ex Parte Declarations of then-DNI
7 Negroponte lodged in June 2006; the public and In Camera, Ex Parte Declarations of Lieutenant
8 General Keith B. Alexander, Director of the National Security Agency, also lodged in June
9 2006; the public Declaration of John F. Hackett of the Office of Director of National Intelligence 10 submitted in May 2006; and a copy of the classified "Sealed Document" that I understand was 11 inadvertently disclosed to the plaintiffs and then lodged with the Court at the outset of this case.
12 I have also reviewed the public and classified declarations submitted in February 2009 in 13 connection with the declassification review ordered by this Court. This includes the public and 14 classified declarations of John F. Hackett of the Office of Director of National Intelligence 15 submitted on February 27, 2009; the public and classified declarations of Joseph J. Brand of the 16 National Security Agency submitted on February 27, 2009; the classified Declaration of 17 Anthony J. Coppolino, Department of Justice, Civil Division; and the classified Declaration of 18 Andrea M. Gacki, Department of the Treasury, Office of Foreign Assets Control.

19 5. My review specifically included the information submitted to the Court that 20 addresses the inaccuracy contained in a prior submission in this case by the Government. As to 21 that particular issue, I concur with the conclusion stated by the Government in its 22 declassification review report that the inaccuracy at issue does not alter the classification 23 determinations made in that report by the ODNI and the NSA regarding information subject to 24 the state secrets privilege and the statutory privilege assertions in this case. Because discussion 25 of the details concerning this matter would require the disclosure of properly classified 26 information, I can make available to the Court for in camera, ex parte review additional 27
28

classified details that address this issue further.
