<sup>1</sup>  It is the policy of the United States that an element of the Intelligence Community may not use as an agent or asset for the purposes of collecting intelligence any individual who - (1) is authorized by contract or by the issuance of press credentials to represent himself or herself, either in the United States or abroad, as a correspondent of a United States news media organization; or (2) is officially recognized by a foreign government as a representative of a United States media organization. Pursuant to Presidentially-prescribed procedures, the President or the DCIA may waive the prohibition on use of journalists as agents or assets, if the President or the DCIA makes a written determination that the waiver is necessary to address the overriding national security interests of the United States. HPSCI and SSCI shall be notified of any waiver under this subsection. (50 U.S.C. 403-7)
