(U) A MESSAGE FROM THE INSPECTOR GENERAL

The Investigations Staff, during this reporting period, continued its efforts to close several ongoing investigations while addressing new allegations of wrongdoing in Agency operations and programs. The Staff is supporting the Department of Justice (DoJ) on a number of cases ranging from a high-profile public corruption case to an investigation into  and has addressed a broad scope of internal administrative violations. The Staff also has taken steps to introduce new technologies and improve its processes for conducting and reporting investigations.
(U/ The Staff continues to address allegations of abuse of individuals who have been captured and detained pursuant to the global war on terrorism and the conflicts in Afghanistan and Iraq. In particular, the Staff continues to work with the DoJ and the FBI on allegations of abuse involving the 16 "high value" detainees now being held at Guantanamo Bay.
(U Two cases investigated by the Office of Inspector General (OIG) resulted in guilty pleas and sentencing by the US District Court for the Eastern District of Virginia. A former Agency employee was sentenced to incarceration of 14 months and three years of supervised probation for embezzlement of of Agency funds. A former Agency contractor was sentenced to incarceration of eight years and 20 years of supervised probation for the importation of child pornography. In the US District Court for the Northern District of Florida, a former Agency contractor was sentenced to incarceration of three months, one year of supervised probation, and a $1,000 fine for theft of government property from (U/ The Investigations Staff also continues to devote considerable investigative resources in support of the DoJ prosecution of a former high-ranking Agency official on Conspiracy to Commit Unlawful Monetary Transactions, Unlawful Monetary Transactions, Wire Fraud, Mail Fraud, Conflict of Interest, False Statements, Aiding and Abetting, and Criminal Forfeiture. The trial is set for November 2008.
(U/ Reviews completed by the Inspection Staff during this period continued to focus on key issues that involve multiple directorates, including training for new National Clandestine Service (NCS) officers, employee onboarding at CIA, and managing the administrative support work force, as well as on major Agency components, including the Office of Medical Services (OMS),
The inspection of Training for New NCS Officers, a corollary to the December 2007 inspection of Training for New Directorate of Intelligence Analysts, found

(U) STATUTORY REQUIREMENTS

- (U) This report is submitted pursuant to section 17 of the CIA Act of 1949, as amended, which requires the Inspector General (IG) to provide to the Director, Central Intelligence Agency (D/CIA), not later than 31 January and 31 July of each year, a semiannual report summarizing the activities of the Office of Inspector General (OIG) for the immediately preceding six-month periods, ending 31 December and 30 June, respectively.
- (U) All audit activities of the OIG are carried out in accordance with generally accepted government auditing standards. All OIG inspection and investigation activities conform to standards promulgated by the President's Council on Integrity and Efficiency.
- (U) The OIG has had full and direct access to all Agency information relevant to the performance of its duties.

(U)	SUBPOENA	AUTHORITY

(U During this reporting period, the IG did not issue any subpoenas.

(U) LEGISLATIVE PROPOSALS

(U) The OIG has carefully reviewed the status of legislative proposals pending during this reporting period that would, if enacted, impact on the authorities of most Inspectors General in the federal government. Some of the provisions would apply to the CIA IG, although others would not. In the event the pending legislation is enacted, the OIG will review the need for revisions to Section 17 of the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949 and will make appropriate recommendations.

(U) AUDITS

(U/ The Audit Staff conducts performance and financial audits of CIA programs and activities. During this reporting period, the Audit Staff issued 10 audit reports containing 23 recommendations that addressed contracting, covert action, financial management, information technology  The Audit Staff also significantly contributed to a report issued by the Office of the Director of National Intelligence (ODNI) Office of Inspector General (OIG) which contained two recommendations.
The Audit Staff participated in quarterly meetings attended by its Intelligence Community (IC) counterparts and Chief Financial Officers (CFOs) in an ODNI initiative to collaborate on achieving sustainable unqualified audit opinions on financial statements of all IC agencies. The Audit Staff has continued to pursue involvement in joint oversight of IC programs. During this reporting period, the Audit Staff completed a joint audit
As requested by the Congress, the Audit Staff continues to pursue its program to audit each covert action program (or an aspect of each program) at least every third year and to provide the results of each audit to the Congress. This reporting period, the Staff completed an audit

(U) During the reporting period, the Audit Staff implemented several significant technology initiatives that provided new and enhanced capabilities to the auditors. The Staff adopted an electronic working paper system, which makes use of existing features in the Microsoft software package, streamlines the workpaper review process, improves workpaper referencing, and facilitates the quality control review process. The Audit Staff brought three high-speed scanners online to convert hard copy documentation to an electronic format that is compatible with the electronic working paper system. Lastly, the Audit Staff upgraded its software applications to provide the auditors with new capabilities to document and prepare flowcharts of business processes; view, manipulate, and manage electronic files; and track the progress of audits and develop individual audit work plans.

(U/ The recruitment of qualified applicants remains a high priority. The Staff continues to seek qualified applicants with broad skills and significant investigative experience In order to better identify such candidates, in early June 2008, the Staff was successful in placing its vacancy notice in a prominent position on the official Web site of the federal IG community, the "IG Net." The vacancy notice is linked to the specific page of the CIA Recruitment Center's Web site where the applicant can apply online. Within the first month of this arrangement, the Staff has seen an increase in applications from qualified applicants who have applied via the IG Net.
(U/ The Staff continues to oversee the Agency-wide grievance system. In addition to sponsoring a yearly grievance counselor workshop for component and directorate grievance officers, the Staff hosts regular meetings of grievance officers to share issues of common interest and conducts mandatory training for all new grievance officers. This training, together with the emphasis on resolution at the lowest possible level, continues to contribute to effective and timely grievance resolution.
