Your appeal must be received by OIP within sixty (60) days from the date of this letter in order to be considered timely. The envelope and the letter should be clearly marked "Freedom of Information Appeal." Please cite the FOIPA Number assigned to your request so that it may be easily identified.

The enclosed material is from the main investigative file(s) in which the subject(s) of your request was the focus of the investigation. Our search located additional references, in files relating to other individuals, or matters, which may or may not be about your subject(s). Our experience has shown, when ident, references usually contain information similar to the information processed in the main file(s). Because of our significant backlog, we have given priority to processing only the main investigative file(s). If you want the references, you must submit a separate request for them in writing, and they will be reviewed at a later date, as time and resources permit.

See additional information which follows.

Sincerely yours,

Enclosure(s)

In reference to your July 2, 2009 letter, in which you requested a fee waiver for the above-referenced Freedom of Information / Privacy Acts (FOIPA) requests, requests for fee waivers are determined on a case-by-case basis. See 5 U.S.C. 552 (a)(4)(A)(iii). Your request was considered in accordance with Title 28, Code of Federal Regulations, Section 16.11(k) and it is agreeable with the reasons you have provided as to why you qualify in this instance for a fee waiver. Therefore, your request for a fee waiver is granted.

Per the stipulation entered on December 17, 2009, the FBI was only obligated to process 1,600 pages for the first release for this request, dated August 13, 2010, in which 1,860 additional pages were released. This constitutes the final release for this request. As of this date, all responsive documents have been processed.
